Revisiting English Language Teaching in a time of change: the English as a Lingua Franca perspective

1st March - 15th July 2021

A post-graduate teacher education online course for teachers of English and for CLIL teachers, based upon the ERASMUS KA2-ENRICH Project http://enrichproject.eu/, is organized at the Department of Foreign Languages, Literatures and Cultures at Roma Tre University, in cooperation with the ENRICH Project and with the patronage of AIA - the Italian Association for the Study of English.
ECTS/CFU: 12 cfu (150 hours)

Course aims

- To promote teacher competences crucial in today's multilingual classrooms across Europe;
- To promote the view of the English classroom as an inherently multilingual 'contact zone';
- To inspire research in multilingualism and ELF;
- To revisit English language teaching through reflective practice;
- To integrate ELF awareness in multilingual classrooms;
- To be able to work with authentic linguistic data.

The course consists of fortnight interactive lectures and webinars taught by a range of experts in the field providing different perspectives on the course themes.
A practicum component will be carried out in the participants' schools.
Portfolio based assessment will include a final teaching project.

Course components

- Revisiting English: World Englishes & ELF
